Letter to my Younger Self

I hope you find this when things are good
When things are working as they should
I tucked it where I knew you'd see
So that you'd truly know it's me
It may be strange for you to hear
Because your future isn't always clear
But I've lived through things too
And through everything I grew
With everything that's going on
Don't ever think that you're wrong
Because of you I'm here today
For I am you in every way.
I'm sure you really want to know
How everything's supposed to go
But that would ruin all the fun
Before you've even really begun
So I'll just tell you this instead
There's nothing for you to dread
For even when you're frightened
The world is still being brightened
It's all in the way you see things
Or way you find the joy it brings
Through all the choices made
Your voice has always stayed.
I love you for everything I am
And ask to hold your hand
For in my heart I wish to be
As innocent as I used to be-
My eyes and heart were open
But now I fear they're broken
And though I lived beyond

That sweetness has since gone.

You'll go through love and pain

But in the end you'll surely gain

This wisdom that I give to you

"In all you do, be true to you."
