Shattered, Scattered, Bruised, and Battered Life is cruel,
Time's a thief
Love's a girl/guy
You just can't keep
We learn to trust
And grow attached
Then it goes up
Like gas and match
Some say it's jaded
That we're depressed
But they're the ones
Who say they're stressed
The universe
Does not choose
Who will win
And who will loose
We all love
We all cry
We will age
And some day die
We are shattered
Pieces scattered
Hearts are bruised
And bodies battered
There's nothing bad

With feeling wrong
Time will pass
And move along
We'll all suffer
Cause we are man
All too often
At each other's hand
The tears we cry
Will burn our flesh
Our lungs will
Burn inside our chest
And though we know
They might be right
When people help
We tend to fight
There's nothing wrong
With how we feel
There's no one way
For us to heal
Nothing's fair
In love or life
What brings us joy
Will bring us strife
Cause we are shattered
Our pieces scattered

Our hearts are bruised
 And bodies battered
Love's a burden
 That we carry
It brings us peace
 But feeds our furry
There's nothing
 To be done or fixed
Cause life is love
 And love's a bitch
So let it come
 And come what may
Each new scar's
 A brand new day
I'd never change
 The things I've done
Cause every day's
 A battle won
I'll life my head
 And raise this voice
For every love
 There was no choice
The world is full
 Of things to hate
But loving you

Was no mistake
So yes we hurt
And yes we cry
But we are here
And will not lie
I may not know
And never will
Why there's a
Whole I cannot fill
For as I grow
The more I want
The love that others
Like to flaunt
So yeah we're broken
And we're chokin'
On these words
That are unspoken
Cause we're shattered
Bruised and battered
And our pieces
Now are scattered
So don't blame us
And don't hate us
Cause there's Nothing that can save us

The world is shattered

We are scattered

Love is bruised

And all are battered.
