The Night I Held You

Tears streaming down your cheeks,
Your red face hidden from my view.
I will hold onto it,
For that was the night I held you.

Unsaid words now shouted,
Finally, lifted from ado.
Sunk to a plea for her,
But that was the night I held you.

No one else remained there,
The only ones left were us two.
I still hear the silence,
On the night that I held you.

Your sobbing words replay,
Regrets and sorrow in lieu.
I now want nothing more,
Than that one night I held you.

You didn't say you loved me,
But now, I know it is true.
I never wanted to let go,
Of the night that I held you.

I can still feel your heart break,
I felt it within mine too.
I will hold it together ,
For that was the night I held you.
