Executive Meeting

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Ogi.

The minutes of the previous general meeting was read and approved.

A report was given by the Public Relation Board on the meeting with the San Francisco chapter in San Francisco on Feb. 23, concerning the Anti-alien Fishing Bill, was disappointing and disgusting. The Board found that there was very little co-operation given to them by the chairman of the San Francisco chapter.

Old business: —

In regards to the garden project, the committee from the Students Club reported that they were willing to start cleaning up the place if the plans of the garden were made. Discussions held.

Yoshio Tabata was added on to the J.A.C.L. committee for the garden.

George Nakaji and Kaoru Ikeda were named co-chairman for the lawn project. With the withdrawal of Oyster Miyamoto.

Masato Suyama was appointed as general chairman for the membership drive.

~~Comm~~
To make the meetings more lively and active, in order to entice other prospective members to join, a suggestion was made that part of the meeting be devoted to business transactions and part to social, song hour included.

New Business: -

A suggestion was made that a camera club be formed. Masato Suyama moved that the J.A.C.S. sponsor a Camera Club and recommended to the assembly at large and that Hal Higashi be appointed chairman. It was seconded by Kay Oka and the motion was carried.

A suggestion was made that the Japanese Association sponsor the Fourth of July ^{parade} entry instead of the J.A.C.S. this year. Kay Oka made a motion that the Japanese Association be approached and ask them to take over the parade. Masato Suyama seconded it and the motion was carried.

Hal Higashi suggested that the large flag be displayed at Monterey Park during the Flag Day week ~~and that a~~ with the history of the flag - the date when it was made, the prizes awarded, etc.

It was suggested that a joint meeting with the Salinas Chapter be held sometime Jabled.

The general meeting was set to be held on Mar. 16.

Meeting adjourned.
