Fullness

Celina Kay

Stop and settle
Slow down the crumble
For I know that if I pause long enough
The destruction will cease in its tracks

Open yourself
Someone out there needs your kindred eye
You won't always find hurt at their hand
You will flourish under their love
And break at their lash

But you will always come around
And see that love is giving
And friendship is receiving
People are faulty and your heart
It won't be filled by them

Discover your fullness elsewhere
