

Dec. 3, 1940

Executive Meeting.

The meeting called to order by James Sabata.

Discussion on the Christmas Party suggestions—

1. Children's party and invite the parents
2. give presents
3. Plans left up to the Social Board.

Masato Suyama gave a report on the new year dance. The Legion Hall had been secured. $15 for the rent of the Hall. Announced the tickets had been printed. Suggested that since the dance was in a patriotic theme the girls would be requested to wear red, white or blue dresses. Hideo Takigawa, Jeno Esaki, and Oyster Miyamoto appointed to join the dance committee. The Womens Auxiliary asked to order and serve the refreshments.

The letter read from the Intermountain District Council asking for a complimentary advertisement to congratulate the Intermountain District upon its acceptance to the National Organization and also advertise our 1941 convention. Hal Higashi requested to send the telegram.

A new nomination committee chosen to take the place of the executive board which was suppose to ~~take the~~ ^{act as} the nomination committee. The committee chosen is—
