The Day I Met Her

JOSÉ ARZOLA

The day that I met her it was already known.
The day that I met her she was already home.
The day that I met her I was no longer alone .
The day that I met her I knew what I wanted.
I knew I wanted love. I knew I wanted care.
I knew that I wanted her hand brushin' through my hair.
What else can I do, I don't know because all I have to give is all my love and all my care.
The day that I met her she looked like a delicate, little,
flower so rare.
The day I met her I knew we balanced each other out like Yin and Yang.

The day I met her I can confess that when my heart skipped a beat... I heard a bang!
