

Now know Ye, That the United States of America, in consideration of the premises and pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress aforesaid of 3rd March, 1857, have Given and Granted, and by these presents Do Give and Grant, unto the said Jose Monrmany and Jaime de Ruiz Monrmany, in right of Juan Antonio Mung and to their heirs, the tract of land embraced and described in the foregoing survey, excepting therefrom as stipulated in the confirmation of the aforesaid Board, the right of "the infant heir" of the said Juan Antonio Mung, which appears to be one undivided sixth; but with the stipulation that in virtue of the 16th section of the said Act, the confirmation of this said claim and this patent, "shall not affect the interests of third persons."

To have and to hold the said tract with the appurtenances, unto the said Jose Monrmany and Jaime de Ruiz Monrmany, and to their heirs and assigns forever, with the exceptions and stipulations aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, I Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

(Seal)

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixtyfive and of the Independence of the United States the eighty seventh.

By the President Abraham Lincoln

By W. O. Stoddard Secretary

J. N. Granger, Recorder of the General Land Office.
