

Now Know Ye; that the United States of America in consideration of the premises, and pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress aforesaid ^{and the legislation supplemental thereto,} of 3d March, 1857, have given and granted, and by these presents Do Give and Grant, unto the said David Sacks and to his heirs, the tract of land embraced and described in the foregoing survey; but with the stipulation, that in virtue of the 15th Section of the said ^{of 3d March, 1857,} Act, the confirmation of this said claim and this patent shall not affect the interests of third persons."

To have and to hold the said tract, with the appurtenances unto the said David Sacks and to his heirs and assigns forever with the stipulation aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States have caused these Letters to be made Patent and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-second.

(L. S.)

By the President: Andrew Johnson,

By Frank Cowan, Secretary

J. N. Granger, Recorder of the General Land Office
