The United States of America

To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting, Whereas it appears from a duly authenticated transcript filed in the General Land Office of the United States that pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress approved the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty one entitled, "An act to ascertain and settle 'the Private Land Claims in the State of California,'" Jose de Jesus Vallejo, as claimant filed his petition on the second day of March 1852, with the Commissioners, to ascertain and settle the Private Land Claims in the State of California, sitting as a Board, in the City of San Francisco, in which petition he claimed the confirmation of his title to a tract of land known by the name of "Bolsa de San Cayetano," containing two square leagues more or less situated in the County of Monterey and State aforesaid, said claim being founded on a Mexican grant to the petitioner made on the 13th day of October 1834, by Jose Figueroa Superior Political Chief of the Territory of Upper California.

And Whereas, the Board of Land Commissioners aforesaid on the 6th day of December 1853, adjudged "that the claim of "the said Jose de Jesus Vallejo is valid," and "decreed that "the same be confirmed to him as testamentary executor "of the late Don Ignacio Vallejo deceased and for the benefit "of the heirs devisees or legal representatives of the said "testator," which decree or decision was in appeal affirmed by the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of California, as appears from a duly authenticated transcript on file in the General Land Office.
