Biographical / Historical

Richard “Dick” Puckett was born September 9, 1932 and grew up in Keno, Oregon. He received his B.A. in Public Service from the University of San Francisco, where he majored in Fine Arts and Education. Puckett began his career in the Army Arts and Crafts program in 1956 at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Puckett served as the Fort Ord Chief Arts and Crafts Director from 1960 until he retired in 1986.

During his time at Ford Ord, Puckett built the largest and most varied military Arts and Crafts program in the world, winning recognition by the Department of the Army as the best in the nation. The Crafts Complex was comprised of ten Crafts Shops, including locations at the Presidio of Monterey and Hunter Liggett Military Reservation, as well as an art gallery of changing exhibits and displays. Under the direction of Puckett, the program offered hundreds of classes for soldiers and their dependents, covering topics such as painting, photography, glassblowing, ceramics and porcelain, auto shop, sculpture, jewelry, woodworking, leather, and stained glass.

Puckett remained a volunteer instructor at Fort Ord until it closed in 1993. He passed away October 20, 2010, at the age of 78, in Salinas, California.
