

CSUMB Library Ethnic Studies Research Paper Award

Award Background

It is the mission of the CSUMB Library to help prepare knowledgeable, resourceful, responsible citizens for California and the global community by facilitating active exploration, discovery, and synthesis of information.

In order to promote opportunities for undergraduates to conduct research that expands their scholarship in the area of ethnic studies, the CSUMB Library is sponsoring a competition to recognize outstanding student research. Student scholarship in ethnic studies supports CSUMB's commitment to multicultural learning and cross-cultural competence.

The CSUMB Library would like to thank Christine Sleeter for her generous support of this award. Christine Sleeter was one of CSUMB's founding faculty members, and she is currently Professor Emerita in the College of Professional Studies. Her research focuses on multicultural education and teacher education.
